A newspaper extract about Alkaff LakeBidadari to have flood prevention lake

The $25m Alkaff Lake is a key feature of Bidadari's drainage system to slow down storm water run-off.

The new housing estate of Bidadari will have an artificial lake that doubles as a flood control feature, the first of its kind in Singapore.

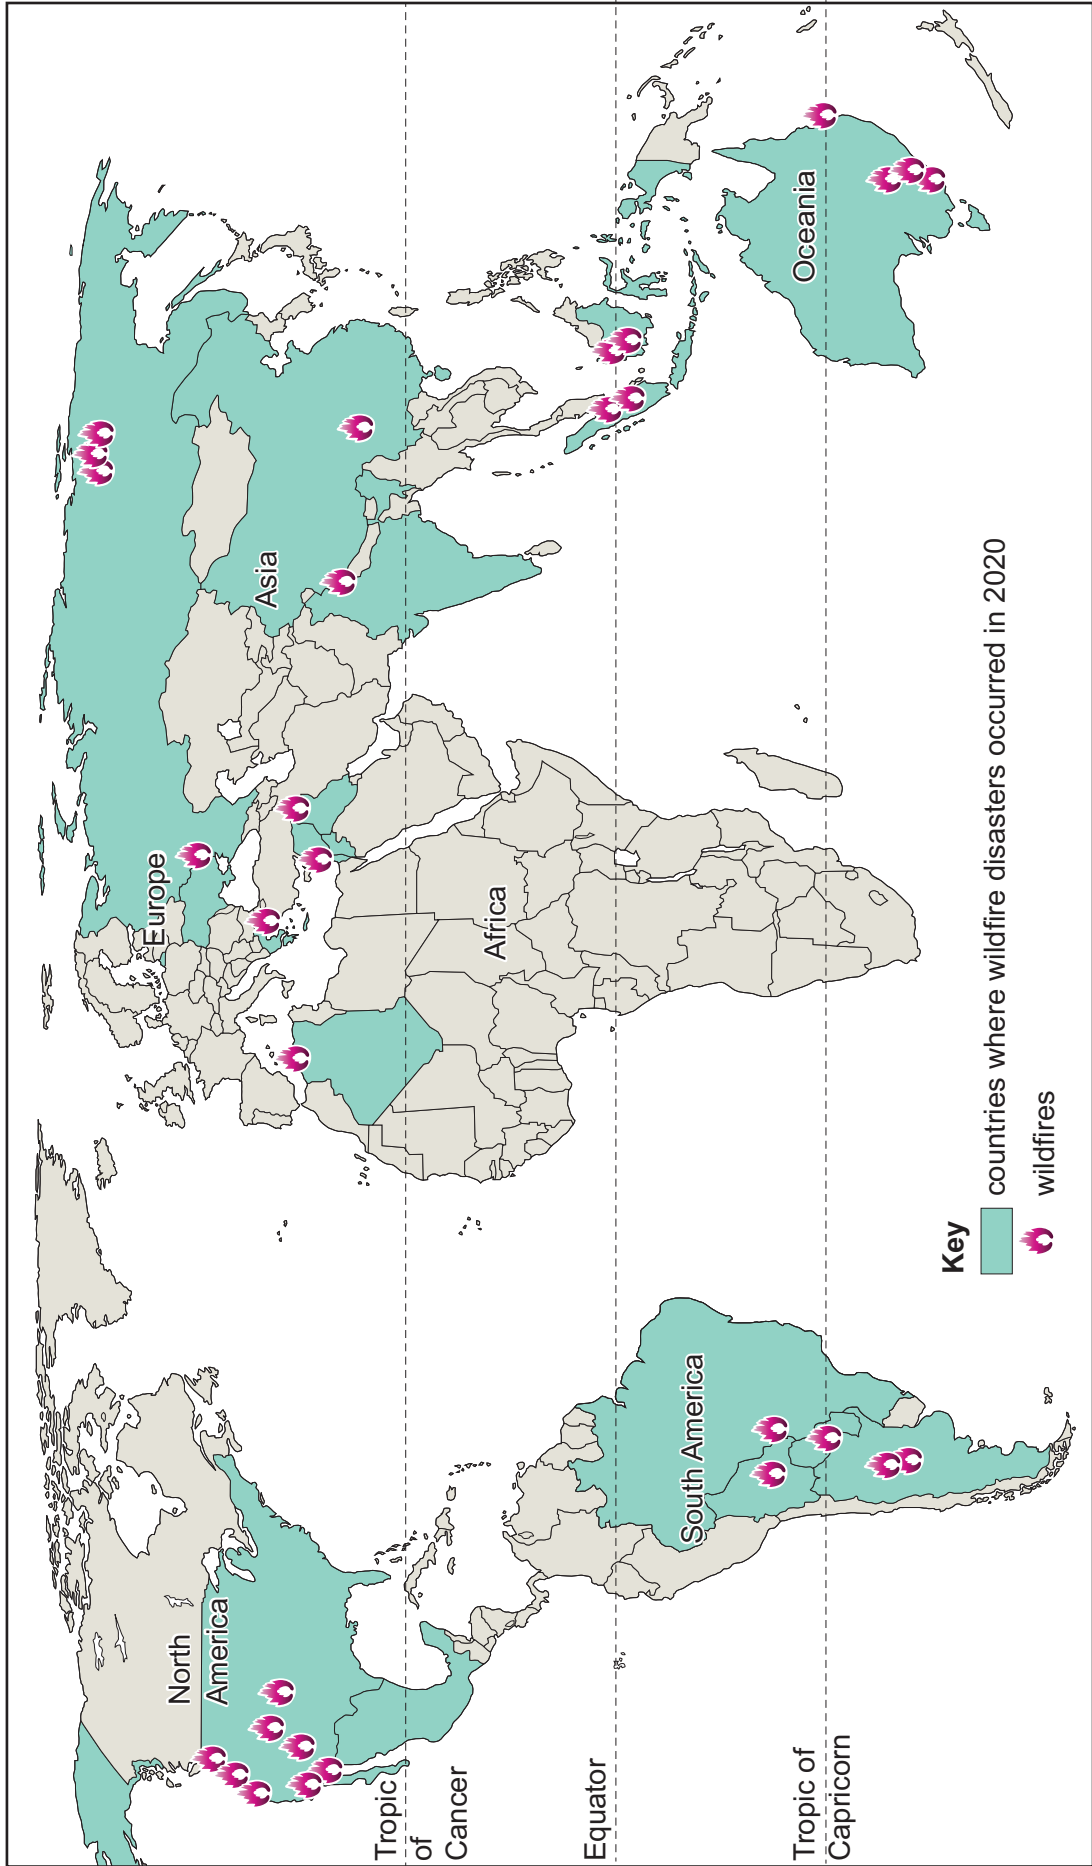

The lake will have terraced wetlands and small waterfalls and in dry weather the grassy banks will be a communal space for the residents.
