AIMS OF TEACHING SYLLABUS

The overarching aim of the EL Syllabus 2020 is to develop effective and affective language use in students in the following areas:

1. Listen to, read and view critically and with accuracy, understanding and appreciation a wide array of literary and informational texts in standard English from print, non-print and digital networked sources.
2. Speak, write and represent in standard English that is grammatical, fluent, intelligible and appropriate for different purposes, audiences, contexts and cultures.
3. Use standard English grammar and vocabulary accurately and appropriately, and understand how speakers/writers put words together and use language to communicate meaning and achieve impact.
4. Use English with impact, effect and affect.

These aims, taken from English Language Syllabus 2020: Secondary (Express/Normal [Academic]), p.9, form the broad basis of a course of study; they may not all be translated into Assessment Objectives for formal examination.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to use standard English to:

- write effectively to suit purpose, audience and context, using accurate and appropriate vocabulary, grammar, punctuation and spelling
- show understanding of a variety of written and multimodal texts at the literal, inferential and evaluative levels, including the use of language for effect
- identify main ideas and details as well as synthesise and summarise information from a variety of texts (including multimodal texts)
- listen to a variety of audio texts and show understanding at the literal, inferential and evaluative levels, including the identification of main ideas and details
- present ideas and opinions fluently and effectively to engage the listener
- engage in a discussion and communicate ideas and opinions clearly.

PAPER DESCRIPTION

Candidates are required to sit all four papers.

Paper 1 Writing [70 marks]

Duration of Paper 1: 1 hour 50 minutes

This paper is divided into three sections.

Section A: Editing [10 marks]

In a given text of continuous prose of not more than 250 words, candidates identify and then edit grammatical errors by writing the corrections in the spaces provided. Errors in punctuation and spelling will not be tested in this section.

Section B: Situational Writing [30 marks]

Candidates write a text of 250–350 words based on a given situation which will involve viewing a visual text. Candidates are required to write the text (e.g. an email, a letter, a report or a speech) to suit the purpose, audience and context.

Section C: Continuous Writing [30 marks]

Candidates choose one out of four topics to write a text of 350–500 words in continuous prose. The topics set may cover different types of texts, e.g. narrative or argument.

Paper 2 Comprehension [50 marks]

Duration of Paper 2: 1 hour 50 minutes

This paper is divided into three sections.

Section A [5 marks]

This section contains Texts 1 and 2, one of which will include visuals. Based on the texts, candidates are required to answer a variety of questions testing comprehension, and on the use of visuals as well as the use of language for effect.

Section B [20 marks]

This section contains Text 3, which is narrative in nature, based on which candidates are to answer questions testing comprehension, vocabulary in context and the use of language for effect.

Section C [25 marks]

This section contains Text 4, which is non-narrative in nature, based on which candidates are required to answer questions testing comprehension, vocabulary in context and the use of language for effect. Candidates are also required to write a summary of about 80 words (excluding the introductory words that will be provided).

Texts 3 and 4 together will be about 1200 words long.

Paper 3 Listening [30 marks]

Approximate duration of Paper 3: 45 minutes

This paper comprises two sections.

Section A [22 marks]

Candidates respond to a variety of listening tasks that will assess a range of listening skills. The tasks, which are based on a variety of types of audio texts, e.g. texts that recount, describe, explain or inform, may have visuals where appropriate. A variety of question types, e.g. multiple choice, matching, and filling in a graphic organiser, may be set.

Section B [8 marks]

Candidates listen to an informational text and complete a simple note-taking task.

Paper 4 Oral Communication [30 marks]

Approximate duration of Paper 4: 20 minutes per candidate (including 10 minutes of preparation time)

This paper comprises two parts which may be thematically linked.

Part 1: Planned Response [15 marks]

Candidates plan and deliver a response of up to 2 minutes to a video clip and accompanying prompt presented on a computer screen. Candidates are assessed on their ability to present their ideas and opinions fluently and effectively to engage the listener.

Part 2: Spoken Interaction [15 marks]

Candidates engage in a discussion with the Examiners on a topic broadly related to the video clip used in Part 1. They will not be asked any questions about what people say in the video clip.
