Social Studies

INTRODUCTION

Philosophy of the Singapore Social Studies Curriculum

At the heart of the Singapore Social Studies curriculum is the preparation of students to be effective citizens by helping them to better understand the interconnectedness of Singapore and the world they live in and appreciate the complexities of the human experience.

Drawing on aspects of society that are of meaning and interest to students, Social Studies seeks to ignite students' curiosity to inquire into real-world issues that concern their lives. Through inquiry and authentic learning experiences, Social Studies helps students to attain relevant knowledge and understanding about these issues, develop critical and reflective thinking skills, and appreciate multiple perspectives.

Social Studies seeks to inculcate in students a deeper understanding of the values that define the Singapore society, nurture dispositions that will inspire them to show concern for the society and the world in which they live and demonstrate empathy in their relationships with others. The curriculum therefore envisions students as informed, concerned and participative citizens, competent in decision-making with an impassioned spirit to contribute responsibly to the society and world they live in.

The syllabus content is organised around three Issues and is anchored in a set of knowledge, skills and values outcomes. The three Issues correspond to societal issues that have been shaping Singapore, the region and the world. The knowledge, skills and values acquired through exploring these Issues will develop students' competencies to be informed, concerned and participative citizens. The following table shows an overview of the three Issues in the Social Studies O-Level syllabus.

Issue 1: Exploring Citizenship and Governance
Inquiry Focus – Working for the good of society: Whose responsibility is it? Why this Issue matters This Issue invites students to begin exploring what it means to be an informed, concerned and participative citizen. Students will deepen their understanding of citizenship and governance and learn how citizens and government play complementary roles in working for the good of society. In a complex society and world, understanding their roles as citizens will influence how they respond to various situations and issues in Singapore and the world. This will serve to develop a stronger sense of civic consciousness, enhancing the roles they play as citizens who are rooted in Singapore with a global outlook.
Key Understandings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Citizenship is varied and complex. • Government is a political institution with important functions and roles to govern. • Different groups of people in society have differing needs, interests and priorities, and experience unequal sharing of costs. Managing these differences often requires trade-offs to be made. • Both citizens and government can play complementary roles in working for the good of society.
Issue 2: Living in a Diverse Society
Inquiry Focus – Living in a diverse society: Is harmony achievable? Why this Issue matters This Issue helps students appreciate diversity and the importance of harmony. Students will develop an understanding of who they are as individuals and accept, respect and celebrate diversity as well as common practices and values in a diverse society. This will heighten students' awareness of the need to develop personal and collective responsibility in promoting and maintaining harmony in a diverse society.
Key Understandings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identities are diverse and complex. • Living harmoniously in a diverse society means respecting our differences and appreciating what we share in common. • People respond to diversity in a variety of ways to achieve harmony.

Issue 3: Being Part of a Globalised World

Inquiry Focus – Being part of a globalised world: How can we respond to globalisation?

Why this Issue matters

This Issue helps students understand and make meaning of their lives in a globalised world where countries and individuals are interconnected and interdependent. Students will explore the impacts of globalisation in three areas: economy, culture and security. They will understand the complex process of globalisation through examining how the impacts of globalisation in these areas result in trade-offs and different responses from countries and individuals. Students will therefore appreciate the complex decision-making process behind the responses towards the impacts of globalisation. This understanding will help them to make well-reasoned and responsible decisions as informed, concerned and participative citizens in a globalised world.

Key Understandings

- Globalisation shapes the interconnections and interdependence among countries and people.
- Globalisation creates impacts in the economy, culture and security.
- The impacts of globalisation result in differing responses from countries and people.

AIMS

As informed citizens, students would:

- understand the rights and responsibilities of citizens and the role of the government in society
- understand their identity as Singaporeans, with a regional and global outlook
- understand the Singapore perspective on key national, regional and global issues
- analyse and negotiate complex issues through evaluating multiple sources with different perspectives; and
- arrive at well-reasoned, responsible decisions through reflective thought and discernment.

As concerned citizens, students would:

- have a sense of belonging to the nation, appreciate and be committed to building social cohesion in a diverse society
- be motivated to engage in issues of societal concern; and
- reflect on the ethical considerations and consequences of decision making.

As participative citizens, students would:

- take responsible personal and collective actions to effect change for the good of society; and
- be resilient in addressing concerns of society in spite of challenges faced.

O-LEVEL ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION GRID FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

Assessment Objective	Weighting
Objective 1 + Objective 2	35%
Objective 1 + Objective 3	15%
Total	50%

Note: Objective 1 is inevitably part of the testing of Objectives 2 and 3.

SCHEME OF ASSESSMENT

O-LEVEL SOCIAL STUDIES

- One paper of 1 hour 45 minutes.

- Paper comprises 2 sections:

Section A: (35 marks)

One source-based case study testing Assessment Objectives 1 and 2.

Section B: (15 marks)

Two structured-response questions testing Assessment Objectives 1 and 3.

- Candidates are required to answer the compulsory source-based case study from Section A and the compulsory structured-response questions from Section B.

Source-Based Case Study

The compulsory source-based case study can be set on any of the three Issues:

- Exploring Citizenship and Governance
- Living in a Diverse Society
- Being Part of a Globalised World.

Candidates will be expected to have an understanding of the ways in which sources may be evaluated. The case study will be set on one of the three Issues of the syllabus and will require the skills and concepts taught during the course. The issue of the case study will be related to the syllabus and may or may not be covered in the syllabus content. Candidates are expected to use their knowledge, skills and conceptual understanding developed during the course to help them use the given sources to answer the questions.

The source-based case study comprises five questions:

Question	Skills Tested	Mark Allocation
1–4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Source-handling skills on specific sources 	25
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Source-handling skills requiring use of multiple sources – question will require candidates to consider the issue of the case study from a different perspective 	10

A 'Levels of Response Marking Scheme' (LORMS) will be used to assess candidates' responses.

Structured-Response Questions

The compulsory structured-response questions will be set on any of the three Issues in the syllabus. However, in an examination, the question set will not be on the same Issue as the source-based case study.

The structured-response questions comprise two questions:

Question	Skills Tested	Mark Allocation
6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constructing explanation by giving reasoned argument and/or making recommendation on an issue (multiple strategies/multi-causal) – question will require candidates to consider the issue in the context of Singapore 	7
7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constructing explanation of two factors / perspectives on an issue and making judgement on the relative importance of factors or giving balanced conclusion on the issue 	8

A 'Levels of Response Marking Scheme' (LORMS) will be used to assess candidates' responses.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Band descriptors for the assessment of O-Level set text questions

	Description
21–25	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pays close attention to the terms of the question. Top answers take advantage of the opportunities offered by the question. • Demonstrates sound understanding of the text. Better answers reveal some insights into the text's main concerns and the effects achieved by the author. • Demonstrates a consistent viewpoint, and is substantiated through judicious selection of textual evidence. • Clear, organised and coherent.
18–20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally well focused on the terms of the question. • Demonstrates understanding of the text's main concerns and some knowledge of how the author conveys these. • Demonstrates relevant and developed substantiation, with apt selection of textual evidence. • Clear and competent, but laboured arguments may be present. The response may lapse into narrative occasionally.
15–17	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relevant to the main thrust of the question. • Demonstrates some understanding of the more obvious concerns of the text but fails to note the wider implications. Attempts to analyse and evaluate can be observed but these are often not successfully done. • Response is substantiated with appropriate selection of textual evidence, though not consistently done. • Generally coherent, with evidence of the development of an argument with tracts of narrative.
12–14	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally relevant to the question though the link may not always be sustained. • Demonstrates some understanding of the basic concerns of the text but does not show any attempt at interpretation. • Response is in the form of generalisations but selection of textual evidence is generally relevant. • Largely narrative in approach and sketchy in development, but a sense of a very basic argument can be discerned.
9–11	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Has peripheral bearing on the question. Often includes information from the text without perceiving its significance. • Demonstrates a little understanding of the text and its concerns. • Coherent only in parts. Ideas communicated with some difficulty.
0–8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflects almost no understanding of the demands of the question. Answers may be extremely brief or are obviously prepared scripts that have little to do with the question. • Some misreading of the text and its concerns. • Almost incoherent and lacks direction or focus. Answers in the lower half of this band (0–4 marks) may reflect no understanding of the text and the question, and may be incoherent, with meaning obscured by poor expression. Short work: Can be presented in various forms, e.g. note form or a series of hurriedly sketched-in paragraphs. It is essential that Examiners mark short work strictly on the basis of what is given. The work should not be marked on the grounds of quality elsewhere in the scripts.

Band descriptors for the assessment of O-Level unseen questions

	Description
21–25	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrates an intelligent grasp of subject matter. Top answers will display freshness of insight. There is good analysis and evaluation of content and presentation, and evidence of the ability to critically appreciate the text. • Pays close attention to the terms of the question. • Sensitive and informed personal response showing close engagement with the text. Ideas are developed effectively and well supported by textual evidence. • Highly coherent argument, with clarity of thought and expression.
18–20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shows a competent grasp of subject matter. There is evidence of analysis and evaluation which is likely to reflect conscientiousness rather than sophistication. • Generally well focused on the terms of the question. • There is a personal response showing evidence of close engagement with the text, though this may not be sustained throughout the answer. Ideas are often supported by relevant substantiation. • Thorough, though rather unsophisticated, argument. Work is coherent and clear, though it may lack polish and subtlety of expression.
15–17	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shows sound basic understanding of the text and of how to respond to it. There is some evidence of analysis and evaluation. • Addresses the question though it may be brief, mechanical or superficial. • Shows some engagement, and is substantiated with appropriate references to the text. • Demonstrates coherence, and is clear.
